Specialists in Waists & Blouses at $1 & $1.50

The proof is here—in upwards of forty different styles in shirts, waists and blouses. Never before have you or we seen such values. Some are embroidered; some have all-over embroidery fronts. There are blouses with Medici collars, waists with round collars and three-quarter sleeves; shirts with and without collars, attached and detachable. Captivating models; too many, of course, to describe in detail. The point we stress is that because we have planned intelligently with the makers, you get better waists, shirts or blouses here at $1 and $1.50. Let us prove it to you—tomorrow.

Generous Sheriff Pays Fare of Man To See Ill Children

P. B. Hinder, late of Philadelphia, in out of the Fulton county tower, and Sheriff C. Wheeler Mangum is out $28.

The sheriff's force, having not searching for the Philadelphia, for Hinder got the sheriff's money not by an unfair means, but through a perfectly truthful hardwork story.

The story is something like this: Hinder, a chauffeur, secured a job with a local automobile concern, which sent him to Dublin, Ga., to bring back a machine to Atlanta. En route he had thirty-two punctures and two blowouts; something went wrong with the carter, however, there was trouble with the magnetos. As a result it took Hinder about a week to get the machine, and when he crossed the Fulton county line he had lost the machine and a cop took him in tow. He notified the firm that the machine was at last in town. Another man took charge of it and Hinder was fired for arriving too late. Then he was warned in the city criminal court and fined $2 for running an automobile without a number.

After the court sentence had been imposed he received a telegram from his wife in Philadelphia saying that both of his children had scarlet fever. When Hinder's last bit of hard luck became known, it was too much for "Dad" Mangum, who promptly handed the young man $28, with which he and his wife and now Hinder is headed toward Philadelphia.

MAIL TRAIN BANDITS MAKE CLEAN GET AWAY

Over $40,000 Obtained on a Queen and Crescent Train Near Birmingham

(By Associated Press.)
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 20.—Definite information as to the amount of money obtained last night by three masked robbers who held up, near here, Queen and Crescent passenger train No. 1, bound from Cincinnati to New Orleans, was lacking today. Estimates based on information available indicated that the loss was more than $40,000.

Passes with bloodhounds set out early today to trace the robbers, but had difficulty following their trail. It was reported today that an automobile was seen near the scene of the robbery shortly before it occurred, and it is thought that robbers may have escaped in it. T. C. Powell, vice president of the Queen and Crescent, is aiding in the search.

JAMES MCGRATH, Special Dispatch to The Journal.
SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 20.—James McGrath, who had conducted a retail grocery store in Savannah for half a century and one of the best known men in Savannah, died this morning, after an illness of a few hours.

Says Husband Worked Her Like a Slave and Scolded Her Severely

Charging her husband, John P. Spake, no abused her that he abused the indignity of his own brother, who knifed him down, Mrs. Carrie B. Spake, formerly of Gaffney, S. C., entered suit in superior court of Fulton county Friday for divorce.

Mrs. Spake alleges that despite the fact that she owned a productive farm of 176 acres near Gaffney, and has an interest in an entire block of stores near the center of the little city, her husband forced her to work like a slave, looking three meals a day for the force of laborers on her plantation.

She was married in 1897, she sets out, and in 1903 her husband, who would never work himself, commenced to abuse her. His acts of cruelty, she alleges, culminated in 1907, when he arose from the breakfast table one morning and poured a pot of scalding water over her head and face.

The pain was so terrible she was rendered unconscious, she says, and when she came to her senses she was in a hospital in Atlanta. She has remained here ever since that date, she says.

Besides a divorce Mrs. Spake asks for the custody of their only child, Brunson, a boy, three years old.

LEAVING PACKAGES ON MAIL BOXES BAD HABIT

Postmaster Issues Warning That Mail Left on the Outside Is Not Safe

Postmaster Bolling Jones on Friday issued a warning to patrons of the postoffice against the habit some of them have of placing packages on top of mail boxes.

The department is not responsible for packages so placed, and when they are lost or stolen it is impossible to trace them.

Thursday night a lot of packages were placed on top of a mail box and were ruined by the rain that fell during the night.

In many cases porters and other employees are instructed by business concerns to place packages to the postoffice, but to save the extra trouble they deposit them on the top of the nearest mail box if the package happens to be too large to put inside.

SLEUTH GOES TO ATHENS SEEKING STOLEN GOODS

Tip on Location of Property Given by One of Three Alleged Shoplifters

City Detective Butler left for Athens Friday in search of loot said to have been stolen from Atlanta department stores by an alleged gang of women shoplifters who were bound over to the state courts Thursday by Recorder Broyles.

While more than $1,000 worth of goods found in the homes of some of the women has been recovered, detectives have information that more valuable are to be found in Athens.

Mrs. C. S. James, of 306 Woodward avenue, who is alleged to have made a confession, admitting she had knowledge that others had been shoplifting, is said to have informed the sleuths that additional loot is to be found in Athens. Because she has been assisting the detectives her bond has been reduced from $1,000 to $500, and Friday she produced the required bond and in the case under $1,000 bonds are Mrs. J. E. McPurty, of 216 Cooper street, and Mrs. E. L. Culver, of 225 East Park street.

GEN. EVANS TO CONTROL EASTERN WING OF ARMY

On or about March 1 General R. K. Evans, of Atlanta, will pass automatically into the command of the department of the east, United States army, to remain in that office until he is relieved. Major General Leonard Wood, now chief of staff of the army, is slated for the command. During the interim between the departure of Major General Thomas H. Barry to his new station in command of the Philippine department and the arrival of General Wood, General Evans will control the department with headquarters at Governor's Island, New York.

Lieutenant Horneby Evans and Lieutenant Albert S. J. Tucker, the two sides of General Evans, will accompany him to New York. During his command of the department of the east, General Evans will have under him some fifty army posts and approximately 15,000 troops.

Major General W. W. Wetherston, formerly commander of the department of the gulf, will relieve General Wood as chief of staff.

IF CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated give "California Syrup of Figs"

Children love this "Fruit Laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then you have a cross, feverish, sick child. In many cases don't eat, sleep or act naturally; breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipation, indigestion and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs," because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here; the genuine made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—(Advt.)

Country Breakdown For Friday Night Is Novelty of Fiddlers

Old Time Georgia Musicians to Give Special Matinee Saturday for Old Veterans

When Fiddler John Carson heard down on "Arkansas Traveler," and that Lick Skillet orchestra whirling into "Billy in the Lowground," took out for a show, though Georgia breakdown at Taft hall Friday night.

The dance is to follow the regular concert of the fiddlers' convention. Taft hall has been greeted with genuine "possum droppin'" until the floor is so slick that Bill Robo, will have to watch his step when he swings his gal into "dixie changes."

They will all be there, fiddlers and guitarists, and the Atlanta business man and the red-necked moonshiner fresh from Pumpkin Creek will vie with each other in seeing which can shake a foot till the stars fade into sunrise.

The dance will be attended by number crowd. Judging from the audience that packed the auditorium Thursday night, Old Atlantians recalled the day when they patted time to "Cotton-wood Joe" at the country "frolie" and forget themselves so far as to yell, "Go to it, boys!" when Old Carter took off his coat and lit into "Forty Cats in the Walley."

ZIEKE MAKES A HIT.
It was all very merry and exciting until Zeke Wardwell from Bald Mountain slid forward with his mandolin and swung into "Silver Threads Among the Gold." Nobody told him to "go to it." They were all too silent and caught with listening so they wouldn't miss one note of it. But he went on to let the uproar want to it with such effect that the uproar wanted to stop until he had obliged with "When You and I Were Young, Maggie."

And it's a question as to which tune was hummed the most as the crowd

JAMES N. LUCAS DIED IN PRIVATE HOSPITAL

James Nathan Lucas, aged thirty-seven, of 52 Arnold street, died Friday morning at 2:45 at a private hospital after a brief illness. Mr. Lucas was connected with the accounting department of the Atlanta and West Point Railroad company, having been a resident of Atlanta for several years, and attracted by his genial and pleasant address.

Prayer services will be conducted by Dr. Barton, pastor of the Jackson Hill Baptist church at the residence this evening at 8 o'clock. The remains will be carried to Waverly Hall, Ga., where he was born, on the early Saturday morning train. For interment there at 10 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Mr. Lucas is survived by his wife, two young sons, James and Paul, and a brother, J. M. Lucas, of Waverly Hall, Ga.

FULTON COUNTY HEALTHY AS OTHERS, SAYS FARRELL

The report of Sanitation Officer Farrell, made public Thursday afternoon, shows that Fulton county, at this time, any other section of the entire state. On the county books there are but twenty such illnesses shown and these, for the most part, are confined to the outlying negro settlements.

But five persons have been removed from their homes and sent to the county hospital since January 15.

A special matinee is announced for Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and at this performance all Confederate and Union veterans will be admitted free, if they wear a regulation badge. The daughters of the Confederacy will provide the special cars for bringing the veterans from the Soldiers' Home.

ATLANTA—Money Boy Evans' Min- strel.

FORBES—Blanche Walsh and other vanderbilt.
LYRIC—Our New Minister.
AUDITORIUM—Old-Time Fiddlers' Convention.

(Certificate of local performance at the local theaters are written by members of the Journal staff. All other matter appearing in this column is furnished by the theater management.)

It is difficult to avoid extravagance in praise of the performance of the Stratford-Lyon-Avon Players who gave "The Merchant of Venice" at the Atlanta theater Thursday night and who will present three other Shakespearean dramas in this engagement. Atlanta has seen many powerful Shylocks numerous delightful Portias, but it is to be doubted that a company where all the players were of such uniform excellence has ever visited the city.

The English organization has been careful to stress the point that it is not a "star" attraction, but rather a company of capable actors and actresses who may play leading roles one evening and small parts the next, giving to each character the same careful, polished study and the same finished condition. Lovers of Shakespeare who saw the "Merchant" found this group of the splendid Shylock of Mr. P. R. Benson and the beautiful reading of Mr. Murray Carrington as Bassanio did not cast into shadow the fine qualities of the other players. Miss Dorothy Green's Portia was so filled with the spirit of comedy, Mr. F. Randie Artt's Gratiano no infection in its humor, Mr. Henry Caine's Launcelot so rollicking in its absurdities, that one did not find the stage dull when Shylock and Portia were absent. Even old Gobbo, the merest "bit" of five minutes, was handled by Mr. William Calvert in a way which should make his fortune in a leading character role.

Mr. Benson makes his Shylock a being to be given sympathy rather than hatred. There is not a moment when one cannot see under the cruel passion of the money lender the soul which has been dwarfed by generations of persecution, and at the close of the trial scene, when Shylock, broken-hearted, stripped of fortune, staggered from the stage, the audience is swept with a great sob for the vanquished rather than exultation for the fair advocate and her friends. Mr. Benson is quiet, restrained, even in the more intense scenes where Shylock confronts his enemies. The fine shadings of his voice, the emotions he conveys with a tone, a gesture, a bit of stage "business," are wonderful. His Hamlet promises to be well worth seeing and remembering.

One had been led to believe that the English company, depending so greatly upon fine acting, would dress the stage as barely as in Elizabethan days, but the mounting of the "Merchant" was a surprise. There have been more elaborate settings of Shakespearean plays, but perhaps none more beautiful and harmonious.

The one discord was found in the ill-rehearsed exhibition in the gallery, from whence came coarse guffaws and loud comments which would have spoiled the character of the love scenes had not educated auditors been so intent on the playing. It would be an improvement worth while if the theater management would provide the gallery with soft drinks in padded bottles which might roll down the steps with less noise, or sacrifice this extra revenue by letting the gallery roads go downstairs for the necessary refreshments.

The Stratford company will present "The Merry Wives of Windsor" Friday night, with William Calvert as Falstaff.

IN THE LOCAL PLAYHOUSES

Miss Green as Mistress Ford, and Messrs. Parrish, Harris and Warburton as the immortal Tardolph, Pistol and Nym. On Saturday afternoon "As You Like It" will be given with Miss Green as the Rosalind, Mr. Benson the melancholy Jacques, and Mr. Carrington as Orlando. On Saturday night, "Hamlet," with Mr. Benson as Hamlet, Miss McDowell, Ophelia, and Mr. Carrington as Claudius. DUDLEY GLASS.

"Stop Thief!" Messrs. Cohen and Harris' latest farce, weighed down with merry laughs and startling thrills, will be the attraction at the Atlanta theater three nights, beginning Monday, February 23.

A classy bill in the Forsyth's offering this week. Headlined by Blanche Walsh and six splendid numbers surrounding her, a better show has never been put together. The noted actress, Miss Walsh, offers "Cousins Noddy," a vehicle that is well adapted to display her talents. Her company is one of the best and gives her good support.

The Lyric is offering "Our New Minister" at that popular playhouse this week. The Norman Hackett stock company are giving a splendid production of this comedy-drama, and a most successful week is the result. All but the three leading roles are small village types, and a more entertaining show has not been offered by the stock.

Atlanta is to have three performances this year by Anna Pavlova, Monday and Tuesday, March 9 and 10, and madame

YOUR FRECKLES

Need Attention in February and March or Face Will Stay Covered.

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The February and March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use choline—double strength.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of choline—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely. (Adv.)

DRINKS AND DANCES TO BE CONDEMNED

Noted Speakers Will Criticize Extreme "Tangoes" and Other Modern Dances

"Higher Criticism" drinking and the extreme form of the modern dance will all come in for their share of condemnation from the platform of the seventh annual Bible conference, which will open in Atlanta a week from Monday. The most noted speakers scheduled to appear here are now in the midst of a big conference at Washington, and columns of comment on their sermons are being carried daily in the Washington papers.

The Rev. Russell H. Conwell, pastor of the great Baptist Tabernacle of Philadelphia, will be among the prominent figures in Atlanta, using his hammer this year on the type of criticism from men of scientific training, who, he says, are too prone to cultivate the mind rather than the heart, to depend on scientific sense rather than the more important spiritual sense. And that so-called higher criticism of the Bible and when directed toward writings that are distinctly spiritual in character, are usually of little value.

Dr. Conwell, who is now one of the most noted preachers in America, was himself an atheist and infidel in his youth. When he comes to Atlanta he will tell of the circumstances that led up to his own conversion to faith in Christ, during the early days of his service in the civil war.

Numbers of the ministers who will be heard in Atlanta are denouncing the evils and are criticizing the excesses which modern dancing has introduced.

SERVICES IN HONOR OF WASHINGTON'S BIRTH

Among the very few public celebrations of Washington's birthday, one will be a service at the West End Christian church at 10 a. m. Sunday. The pastor, Rev. William O. Foster, will address upon "The Ideal American." This service will add the local school to its content with the Winter Christian school, which was held during the first two weeks of the year, and the West End school has placed as its aim for next Sunday, the 22nd, the celebration of the birthday of one of our nation's greatest men, George Washington. The service is invited to attend as an expression of patriotism and as an aid in the content.

WIDOW ASKS $50,000 FOR HUSBAND'S DEATH

Central of Georgia Defendant in Suit Filed for Mrs. Minnie Maxey

Suit for $50,000 damages was filed Friday by Atlanta and Horn attorneys for Mrs. Minnie Maxey, in the city court of Atlanta against the Central of Georgia railroad for the death of George Maxey, husband of the petitioner.

The suit alleges Maxey was killed November 3, 1912, by a train of the Central of Georgia near the Downman-Dorner plant south of Atlanta, and that the tragedy was due to negligence in that the train of passenger coaches was backing out of the city at a high rate of speed without lights or whistle or lookout on the rear end. It alleges further that the "crossing under" company by employees of the Downman-Dorner company was blocked at the time by trains held there by a wreck near the crossing, and that Maxey attempted to cross at the wreck because there was the only clear space. As he was passing, says the suit, he was hit without warning by the train.

What Anne Rittenhouse Says

By Anne Rittenhouse

Why Do Women Wear Corsets?—There were ever before such a season for flowers. For example, look at the frock in the sketch. It is made of flowers of the tulle. The tulle, which is very light, is some- what stiffened in the way it crosses in long points in front, where it is fastened with small velvet bows, and the lace draped about the shoulders falls in strikingly graceful lines. But the whole effect of the frock depends on the flowered figure of the silk and in the gar- land of roses on the bodice.

Flowered taffets, by the way, will show their popularity with flowered crepe. There will be much flowered cotton crepe, and flowered crepe de chine and crepe de soie, will be worn.

DARKENS GRAY HAIR

Stops Falling Hair.

Darkens Evenly and Naturally. Without Sticky Drugs.

When your hair turns gray, streaked with gray, white or prematurely gray, try the following: On retiring apply Q-ban to hair and scalp. Place a shampoo on the hair and scalp. The gray disappears and a few more applications of Q-ban and your hair is beautifully darkened, so evenly and naturally no one can tell you have applied anything. Q-ban also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which makes the hair so fascinating and attractive. Besides preventing baldness and falling hair, Q-ban is not sticky or messy—prevents itching and keeps the scalp in the most delicate scalp or hair. Q-ban gives a delightful feeling of refreshment and cleanliness to the scalp. Keeps you looking young by keeping your hair dark, shiny and beautiful. # Jake Stahl Submits Proposition to Feds to Manage Brooklyn

Tech High Meets Columbus High

The Tech High school basketball team will tackle one of the best prep quinquets in this section tonight, when it meets the Columbus High school team at the Athletic club gymnasium. The Columbus boys are said to be fast, and accurate in their team work, and also good at shooting goals. The local boys have improved wonderfully in their recent games, and this contest should prove interesting at all times.

Friday afternoon of next week the young smuties will meet Locust Grove on their own court here in the city. Saturday night following they are to try conclusions with the strong Riverside team at the Crystal Palace on the Tech campus. The Gainesville cadets have a great prospect of coming down with the intention of winning this battle. The Junior Techs won from Riverside last fall at football, and the latter will take this occasion to even matters up in a way. If more Tech High will work hard for this game, and a close battle result.

Jesse Tannhill is slated to manage the Mayville team in the Ohio State league.

Stahl Submits Proposition to Federal League

Former Leader of the World Champion Red Sox Announces That He Will Handle Brooklyn Club in New League, if Federals Will Meet His Terms

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Federal league officials were optimistic today over their negotiations with Jake Stahl, former manager of the Boston American club, who has been offered the management of the Brooklyn club in the new league. Stahl, president of the club, had expected to sign Stahl at a conference late today.

According to Stahl his signing is now up to the Federal league officials. After a conference last night with H. B. Ward, owner of the Brooklyn club, Charles Weegman, president of the Chicago club, and President of the Federal league, Stahl had submitted a proposal and would join the Federals if it is accepted.

President Gilmore has announced that Otto Chandler, pitcher, and Grover Hargrove, catcher of the New York Giants, may be signed by the Federals today. Offers were made in both, if more Stahl and further conferences probably will be held today.

According to an announcement last night by James A. Gilmore, president of the new baseball league, Stahl, one-time Chicago National league player, and Jimmie Black, former Chicago American league catcher, were signed yesterday.

Conferences which indicated that Jake Stahl, former Boston American club manager, might be signed by the Federal league, had not ended in an agreement. Stahl, president of the Brooklyn club, had submitted a proposal and would join the Federals if it is accepted.

THE SPOTLIGHT BY GRANTLAND RICE

THE CUNDRUM OF THE GOLF SHOPS. (Re-entered as a halved hole with Col. Kipling.)

When the flush of a new-born sun first fell on Eden's golfing strand. Our father, Adam, stood on a tree with a crooked stick in his hand; And the first river saying that the world had been brought joy to his heart in a swam.

Till the Devil whispered behind the leaves: "It's pretty, but is it Form?" Wherefore he called to his wife and tried to fashion his swing anew—The first of his clan who care a fig for the first great dread review; And he left his style to the use of his sons and brought it a glorious gain Till the Devil whispered: "Is it Form?" in the ear of duffer Cain.

They builded a bunker to reach the sky and turn each score to a blotch, Till the Devil grinned from out the sand: "It's striking, but is it Scotch?"

The clerk was dropped at bunker side and the idle mangle hummed While each bloke talked of the "proper stroke," and each in an alien tongue.

The tale is old as the Eden tree and new as the unshaved cheek, For each club thinks as he spears his drink he is master of wood and stick. And each guy hears as the last stroke nears and boggles is getting warm Pennant winner or quoniam contender, but there isn't room in any town for one taller. The Giants as tallenders, without competition, used to play to something like 238 morbid souls. Now, with any brand of competition, they can play to 25,000.

FEBRUARY, 1915. "Yes," remarked ex-Manager O'Day, "everything Chance, Tinker, Brown and Evers said of this guy was the right dope. Only they didn't go far enough. Why, this guy must be a mutt."

A BOOST FOR C. WEBB. They say that Mott doesn't treat his players fairly. What club owner in baseball has done as much for any of his people? Murphy kicked Chance from a $10,000 a year to a $25,000 bonus. He booted Tinker from $2,000 a year to $26,000 for three years. He lifted Evers from $10,000 a year to $10,000 a year and a $20,000 bonus. He hoisted Miner Brown from $4,500 a year to $15,000 a year. Was only wish the energetic owner of this prosperous journal would use his toe upon us to the same Murphyan effect.

THE PASSING OF WADDELL. "I read with regret," writes Old Timer, "of the passing of Rube Waddell. He shot down the great chute that leads to oblivion as fast as he once shot them over the plate. I remember, I think it was 1898, seeing old Rube pitch two shut-outs in two days, striking out thirty-four men, one of his games being a no-hit affair. Eighteen batters churning the ether of that period. This was during a period when he was blacklisted by the Detroit club. Sam Crawford can tell you all about that game, as he played on the same team. Now, for a little dope—I saw Waddell throw a ball 326 feet. In terms of speed, how would this compare with what Walter Johnson and Nap Rucker did?"

THE RUBE vs. JOHNSON. Waddell came about as close to having as much smoke as Johnson as anyone else. The old boy could certainly pump the pill over the plate. He had more speed than Rucker, but not quite as much as the Senatorial Typhoon. At the top of his career he was as hard as a hammer. The game has never known, barring neither Mathewson nor Johnson, the non-partials of the last few years. And Rube had something more than speed. He had a wonderful curve, and for all the queer dope that rested in his bizarre elite he knew how to pitch. He had the instinct of the twirling clan.

Old Timer also says that he saw Ed Crane throw a ball 407 feet. He wants to know if a batsman ever hit one that far. Both Wagner and Merkle hit a couple on a line over the left field fence at Pittsburgh, which fence is over 400 feet from the plate. And, according to those who backed the Giant, Frank Baker has poled half a dozen over 800 feet from his starting point.

The main difference was this—they could measure. Ed Crane's throw. But they rarely find the ball again that Baker catches right. So far the Feds haven't leased the National Capital or Yellowstone Park. But the season is still a trifle soon.

As for handling Mr. Murphy, of the Cubs, we have an idea that about 87,000 fans of Chicago will attend to that little detail between April 14 and October 6.

FULLERTON'S GOSSIP

Our idea of wasting newspaper space is to print a quarter of a column because King Cole wants the money. Next thing you know it will be news when Hattie Zimmerman is broke.

One of the old things about the Federals is that when they meet in Chicago every year the National Capital and Cincinnati know more of the doings than do the reporters sitting just outside the door.

When a man, aged forty-eight, has spent twenty-six years of his life being pretty in athletics and reform, is informed by his son, aged twenty-two, that he has got a new board and a bit of money playing for a certain college, what's the reply?

Frank Gotch's announcement that he will return to the ring started a deluge of steamship agents hustling to sell return tickets.

An evidence in rebuttal on the charge that Evers could not control a board and he got along with Murphy for one year.

Local Players Hiking Out for Training Camps

Otto Jordan Has Reported to Dallas—Roy Moran Leaves for Sacramento—Red Smith, Harry Holland and Milton Reed Are Due to Leave Shortly

By Inns Brown

With the time for digging up the old paraphernalia, packing the grip and hiking to training camp almost here, the diamond athletes who make their homes in Atlanta are already beginning the trek to their fields of labor for the coming season. Some have already departed, while others are due to hang on for a little while longer before hopping a rattler.

Roy Moran was the first of the local colony to take up the march. Otto left several days ago for Dallas, where he will make the Texas league Giants depart from his club, a stunt which has not been turned since 1910.

Speaker Has Not Signed With Sox

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—Efforts of the "Chicago" Callahan, manager of the Chicago Americans, to have Tite Speaker sign a contract with the Boston Americans for next season have been unsuccessful, according to a cablegram received from Paris today by President Lammie, of the Red Sox.

Callahan was empowered by the Boston team to sign Speaker to forestall advances by the Federal league agents, but Speaker told Callahan, the cablegram said, that he would not sign with Boston or with the Federals until after his return to this country from the world tour.

Britons Favor Big Air Flight

Aero Club of America Receives Letters From British Club Approving Plan

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Support of the International Aeronautical Federation and of the Royal Aero Club of Great Britain is assured to the proposed round-the-world Panama-Pacific race from San Francisco next year, if the Aero Club of America sanctions the flight, according to an announcement today by the Aero club.

Letters promising cooperation have been received from the federation and the Royal Aero club says the American body's statement, which continues: "These letters are held as significant, particularly that of the federation, which represents about 400 aero clubs, members of which include representative sportsmen, military authorities, diplomats, constructors and aviators of the world. The letters will be considered Wednesday, when the matter of sanctioning the race again will be up for consideration."

The Aero club has received a number of replies to its letter and foremost space advocates suggesting that the globe circling flight be made part of the general movement looking toward international peace. Andrew Carnegie in a brief letter said: "I have hitherto been concerned in the airship becoming an instrument of destruction. I have submarines, and have expected a movement for debarring them from being used for projectiles or bombs which could mean the destruction of the world. They should be ultra-vires."

Selecting Eggs for Hatching

People as a rule pay little attention to the kind of eggs they set. A loss that runs into millions of dollars in the United States is caused every year by people not paying enough attention to this important detail. People who set thousands of eggs operate incubators on a large scale and who have had much experience in this respect realize how much importance it is to look after carefully this item, and usually do so. A great many beginners who have not had this experience can save themselves a lot of trouble and money by the experience of others in this one respect. Furthermore, people who are selling eggs for hatching at fancy prices should be particularly about selecting nice shaped eggs for hatching purposes.

With the present price of market eggs the culs or eggs that will not hatch are bringing more than these eggs and have them ruined or thrown away. A little attention to the selection of eggs that will hatch is usually 25 per cent that will not hatch. It is much easier to get good hatches from hens that only lay a few eggs and have a free range than to get good hatches from hens that are being forced to lay eggs and have an unlimited amount of exercise.

When the eggs come so fast in their completion and produced so rapidly that very often an egg is not fertilized and often they will be so crowded in the ovary until one will be produced from same. This is a very common fault in the egg that is being collected and receiving the shell, and eggs of this kind will not hatch. That is, as a rule, bad shaped eggs will not hatch. Sometimes you will find a few of these eggs that will hatch, but not enough to warrant setting them. Therefore a person should be very careful in making his selection of eggs to set.

In selecting eggs that will be shipped for setting purposes the size of the egg has very little to do with the size of the chickens that will be produced from them. For instance, a Leghorn egg that will produce a four to five pound chicken, so the size of the egg has nothing to do with the size of the chicken that will be produced from it. Very little attention should be paid to this detail. However, I like to set eggs that are too small or too much out of proportion to the hen that laid them.

Eggs that are uneven in size, that have ridges in them, eggs that are too thin, eggs that have sharp points, and eggs that have thin transparent spots on the shell never should be used. Very often these eggs will hatch, and when such is the case they are usually porous and the chicks that hatch from them will be weak and will die very early. By being careful and discarding eggs that are of this kind, hatches will be far better than if such eggs are set. They not only produce a weak chick, but they will be used for nothing, and will be ruined besides. Therefore, be careful to select and discard eggs that will be used for nothing, and will be ruined besides. They can be set to market and converted into cash, and good eggs that will produce strong, healthy chickens set in their place.

People who set eggs with hens and in incubators can increase their average per cent of hatch from 10 to 25 per cent by looking after their eggs in this manner. However, hundreds of people never give this matter any thought and just set any old kind of eggs, regardless of shape and often do not understand why every egg does not hatch. The world's average hatch in incubation is about 55 per cent of the eggs set, but many people who have had an experience in this matter have had an experience in never expected by a person who has had any experience in this matter. To secure and too high to pay attention to these little details and to set such eggs as you can come reasonably close to getting a healthy chick, and if this simple thing alone is looked after it will mean the saving of thousands of dollars to the United States and to the people who set them.

Yours very truly,

W. H. Hastings & Co.

NEW YORK COTTON LETTER

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Cables were higher and our market made a full response after our buying by Liverpool. The market met fresh offerings over 12 for Liverpool, and the market was covering for the three-day holiday to hold prices steady.

Sentiment remains mixed and traders generally are waiting for the new crop to turn out on a basis for the new operation. In the old crop interest centers on the heavy open straddle short New York May and July, against the heavy long position in Liverpool. There are those who doubt if difference will widen to 150 to 175 points as bears in the market so freely predict and think there may be a reaction in the near future. It would bring New York closer to Liverpool. Reason-cotton exchange demanding that the government suppress all commercial differences and criticism as the same lines from other quarters in the south are causing considerable discussion. It should be remembered that the government's policy of December was to eliminate good-ordinary and low middling timed cotton from our contract and at the same time adopt a monthly average of the best practically all the way to the commercial difference basis. Furthermore, it is generally supposed among the trade here that in the absence of any disposition on the part of the government to make use of any of the types of upland cotton more suitable to this exchange, our board is likely to soon adopt the present government standards.—American Cotton.
